

Personal Care Questions

Consideration	Answer
What are the personal care tasks in which the employee needs help?
Is there training I need for this type of personal care?
How long do each of the care tasks take to complete?
How often is assistance needed with each task?
What supplies or equipment is needed to support the individual on their job, how do they remain available and where are they stored?
What is the individual's support schedule?
When are designated break times?
Other relevant information	